2019 Mass Book Intentions

The 2019 Mass Book is now open. You may choose to commemorate a death anniversary, wedding anniversary, birthday remembrance, in healing, or simply a prayer of thanksgiving. Each offering is $15. You can pick up a Mass Intention sheet at the doors of the Church, come to the Rectory or call to request a special Mass offering for your loved one. Also, you may wish to offer the gifts of Bread and Wine or the Altar Candles for one week. The offering is $25.

POPE FRANCIS

Each year, the Holy Father asks for our prayers for a specific intention each month. You are invited to answer the Holy Father's request and to join with many people worldwide in praying for this intention in May.

The Mission of Religious

That consecrated religious men and women may bestir themselves, and be present among the poor, the marginalized, and those who have no voice.

THE GIFT OF EUCHARIST

When we permit ourselves to be nourished by the Bread of Life, we are in tune with the heart of Christ.

God of mystery and wonder, my thanksgiving is equaled by my trepidation. Please help me!

HALLOWEEN PARTY - SAT. OCT. 27- 6:30 PM

Please join us for a night of music, games, haunted house, costume contest and refreshments. You must RSVP today, so that we may plan accordingly. Email: americanmartyrssports@gmail.com. Children will not be admitted without an adult. Please see the flyers in the back of the Church.

*Because the family is the root of society,
we want our family to fulfill its vocation to build the common good.*

REFLECTION

Our readings today are wonderfully consoling and wildly challenging. If we take them to heart, they just might change our lives. For they should call us to profound gratitude for all that God has done for us and inspire us to live lives of thanksgiving and obedience to Him in response to His overwhelming love and mercy.

In the Gospel Reading, from Mark, Jesus tells us in His own words how we can thank Him and how our lives can reflect greatness in His eyes — we can imitate Him. He tells us, “Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Our God has ransomed our lives. In truth, this “ransom” means our lives are not our own but belong to God. We must do what He asks us to do with them. And He has told us clearly what to do — serve others in love as we have been served in love by Him.

This is why service for the Christian Steward is not an add-on to our already busy lives. It is our life. Over the course of the next week, take these readings to heart. Reflect on the remarkable love God has shown for you. Then look carefully at your daily life.

Is it an imitation of the servant-love of your Brother and Savior? What changes do you need to make, perhaps just in attitude, or perhaps to the trajectory of your life as a whole, to live in grateful service to the One who loves you so? ~thecatholicsteward.com

THANK YOU!

Rev. Gary Wiesmann from the Diocese of Mandeville, Jamaica, who was here to speak about the Propagation of the Faith is very grateful for the parish collection of $5,805. He writes: "Your Parish family has blessed the poor with some of what they deserve as God's children; I am confident that the good Lord will bless you and your parishioner for this most generous sacrifice for our poor. Truly, "...the Lord hears the cry of the poor" and has touched the hearts of your Parish as they have so generously responded in the Lord's name. We are very grateful!"

Does receiving communion fill your heart with God's love and grace?
